TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The original tournament began in 1967 as the Loyola Centennial Tournament. During its six year history, the Loyola Tourney attracted such outstanding teams as Michigan Tech, Harvard, Boston College, Boston University, Clarkson, Toronto, Alberta, St. Mary's and Sir George Williams.

The Centennial Tournament was superseded by Hockey Canada which Loyola hosted for two years. Hockey Canada discontinued its sponsorship and Sir George Williams University continued the tourney in 1974-75. With the merger of Loyola and Sir George, the tourney again changed its name. The MICRON Tournament is now in its 5th year and with the backing of a major skate manufacturer "MICRON", it will certainly continue as Canada's outstanding College Hockey Tournament.

SCOUTING REPORT

CONCORDIA STINGERS

The Stingers have cleaned house cutting eight veterans from last years 29-8-3 Quebec Champions. Top lettermen remaining include All-Canadian defenseman, Michel Blais; centre, Doug Feasby; defenseman, Kevin O'Neill and wingers, Steve Young and Chris Brinster. Despite the losses coaches Paul Arsenault and Bob Philip believe the team will be stronger this year with the addition of veteran Roy Halpin from the Toronto Blues and outstanding rookies, Grant McNicholl, Mike Walker, Mike Piano, Gilles Hebert, Rick Uttley, Roman Dziatkowiec and Stephane Query. Season highlights so far include a 5-2 victory at Dalhousie, a 5-4 victory over Clarkson and the Toronto Tournament Championship.

TORONTO VARSITY BLUES

Despite the loss of coach Tom Watt and several players to the Canadian Olympic team, the Blues, under interim coach Gord Davies appear to be heading towards another Ontario title. The Blues, who have won nine national championships since 1966, are presently undefeated in league play with five wins and two ties. Toronto's strength lies on the blueline where veteran defenseman Brad Tamblyn, Wayne Morrissey and Lance Gattoni support goalie Dave Jenner. Centre Doug Caines, a member of the Olympic squad, will spearhead the offensive attack.

PLATTSBURGH STATE CARDINALS

Lou Frigon's club is looking to duplicate last year's outstanding record of 26-3 and a berth in the Eastern College Athletic Conference, Division II playoffs. The Cards have nine players returning from the 1978-79 roster, including co-captains Doug Kimura and Rick Goodwin. Kimura, a native of Verdun, Quebec was slated as a first team Division II All-American last season. Top newcomers include Gaetan D'Anjou and Pierre Brunet, while Don McNairn and Rick Strack are expected to share the goaltending.

DALHOUSIE TIGERS

Pierre Page's squad is presently on top of the Atlantic University Athletic Association—Eastern Division with a 9-4-1 record. The Tigers, finalists in last year's C.I.A.U. National Championships are led offensively by forwards Rick McCallum and Brian Gualazzi. McCallum is the team's leading scorer to date with 22 points on 8 goals and 14 assists, while Gualazzi has 14 goals and 6 assists. The blueline corps will be spearheaded by Louis Lavoie, a late cut from the Canadian Olympic tryout camp, while veteran Ken Bickerton will assume the goaltending duties.
